SUBJECT: Determination Regarding Attendance by NASA Employees at the
Women in Aerospace (WIA) Networking Morning on April 18, 2012

On April 18, 2012, Women In Aerospace (WIA), a non-profit organization under Section 501(c)(6) of the IRS Code, will host a reception at the Broadmoor Hotel, Divide Room II, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 pm. Cosponsors of this event include United Launch Alliance, Ball Aerospace, Sierra Nevada Corporation, Goodrich, and Northrop Grumman. As host, however, WIA makes all determinations on invitations and seating.

The purpose of this event is for networking for people both within and outside of the community. Approximately, 200 people are expected to attend. This event will include attendees from NASA personnel, the aerospace industry, academia, Department of Commerce, DoD, as well as selected members of the media. The estimated cost of the event, which includes all food and beverages, is $25 Euros per person. I find that this event meets the requirements of a "widely-attended gathering" as defined in 5 C.F.R. §2635.204(g)(2). I have determined that free attendance at the above-mentioned event is in the interest of the Agency, because it will further agency programs and operations. Accordingly, NASA employees whose duties do not substantially affect the event sponsors, including NASA employees in non-career positions who are required to sign the ethics pledge under Executive Order 13490, may accept an invitation for free attendance to the event for themselves and their accompanying guest.

However, NASA employees whose duties may substantially affect WIA-Europe or any of the companies supporting the event, such as by way of procurement duties, should seek an individual determination pursuant to 5 C.F.R. §2635.204(g)(3)(i) regarding participation in this event from their local ethics counselor.
